WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Next Sunday, "Good Shepherd Sunday", has been World Day of Prayer for Vocations since Pope Paul VI designated it as such in 1963.

The world-wide Church honors the vocation given to all Christians at Baptism, and through the vocations to Marriage, Priesthood, Diaconate, Consecrated Life, and the single life, may each of us do our part to build up the Body of Christ. Jesus gave His life for us that we might know fullness of life.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

The young people listed below will receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Confirmation from Bishop Robert McElroy next Saturday at the 5PM Mass.

They have been preparing for quite some time for this Sacrament; please remember them in your prayers so that, like the Apostles, their lives may bring light to scatter the darkness of this world.

Next Week is Catholic Charities CYO Sunday

This annual second collection asks parishioners within the Archdiocese of San Francisco to live their faith by generously supporting the good work of Catholic Charities CYO. Your contributions directly support programs and services that provide relief for homeless families, frail seniors, immigrants, the working poor, children and youth, and many of our most vulnerable neighbors who are struggling to meet even their most basic needs. Put your faith into action and change a life for the better today by contributing to Catholic Charities.

For more information on the work of Catholic Charities CYO and how you can help strengthen families, build community, and reduce poverty locally, please call Jane Ferguson Flout at 415-971-1227 or jfergusonflout@cccyo.org.

WORDS OF SAINT JUSTIN MARTYR

No one may share the eucharist with us unless he believes that what we teach is true, unless he is washed in the regenerating waters of baptism for the remission of his sins, and unless he lives in accordance with the principles given us by Christ.

We do not consume the eucharistic bread and wine as if it were ordinary food and drink, for we have been taught that as Jesus Christ our Savior became a man of flesh and blood by the power of the Word of God, so also the food that our flesh and blood assimilates for its nourishment becomes the flesh and blood of the incarnate Jesus by the power of his own words contained in the prayer of thanksgiving.

The apostles, in their recollections, which are called gospels, handed down to us what Jesus commanded them to do. They tell us that he took bread, gave thanks and said: Do this in memory of me. This is my body. In the same way he took the cup, he gave thanks and said: This is my blood. The Lord gave this command to them alone. Ever since then we have constantly reminded one another of these things. The rich among us help the poor and we are always united. For all that we receive we praise the Creator of the universe through his Son Jesus Christ and through the Holy Spirit.

On Sunday we have a common assembly of all our members, whether they live in the city or the outlying districts. The recollections of the apostles or the writings of the prophets are read, as long as there is time. When the reader has finished, the president of the assembly speaks to us; he urges everyone to imitate the examples of virtue we have heard in the readings. Then we all stand up together and pray.

On the conclusion of our prayer, bread and wine and water are brought forward. The president offers prayers and gives thanks to the best of his ability, and the people give assent by saying, "Amen." The eucharist is distributed, everyone present communicates, and the deacons take it to those who are absent.

The wealthy, if they wish, may make a contribution, and they themselves decide the amount. The collection is placed in the custody of the president, who uses it to help the orphans and widows and all who for any reason are in distress, whether because they are sick, in prison, or away from home. In a word, he takes care of all who are in need.

We hold our common assembly on Sunday because it is the first day of the week, the day on which God put darkness and chaos to flight and created the world, and because on that same day our savior Jesus Christ rose from the dead. For he was crucified on Friday and on Sunday he appeared to his apostles and disciples and taught them the things that we have passed on for your consideration.
