ATTENTION, LECTORS !

It has been quite some time since we have had Lector Review & Training as required by the Archdiocesan Office of Worship. Deacon David Previtali is our new coordinator for Lectors, and will direct two sessions this Summer to accommodate various schedules. One session will be on a Sunday at 10AM; the other on a week night to be determined. Please send him your name and session-time preference. Email is the best way to make contact as it will make communication between parish and lectors much more convenient, but if you do not have email, either write your name, phone number, and session-time preference on a piece of paper and place it in the Sunday offertory basket, or call the Parish Office and leave a message with the same information. Thank you!

SUNDAY COLLECTION

Last Weekend	$ 4,488.
Weekly Goal	$ 5,200.

CENACLE OF PRAYER

TODAY

3 to 4pm

Exposition

of the Blessed Sacrament,
Rosary, Meditation, & Benediction

Spend an hour here with Our Lord.

Jesus is always present in the tabernacle,
waiting to hear what's on your mind.

Your prayers are powerful!

Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to heaven. There are others: innocence, but that is for little children; penance, but we are afraid of it; generous endurance of trials of life, but when they come we weep and ask to be spared. The surest, easiest, shortest way is the Eucharist.

—Saint Pius X

Eucharistic Adoration

In the middle of the Second Vatican Council, on September 3, 1965, a few days before opening the fourth session, Pope Paul VI issued the Encyclical Mysterium fidei whereby he urged daily Mass and Communion and said that “In the course of the day the faithful should not omit to visit the Blessed Sacrament, which according to the liturgical laws must be kept in the churches with great reverence in a most honorable location. Such visits are a proof of gratitude, an expression of love, an acknowledgment of the Lord’s presence.” “The daily adoration or visit to the Blessed Sacrament is the practice which is the fountainhead of all devotional works,” St. Pius X used to say.

POPE FRANCIS’ JUNE INTENTIONS

Universal: That immigrants and refugees may find welcome and respect in the countries to which they come.

For Evangelization: That the personal encounter with Jesus may arouse in many young people the desire to offer their own lives in priesthood or consecrated life.

ON THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

from a work by St. Thomas Aquinas, Priest

Since it was the will of God's only-begotten Son that men should share in his divinity, he assumed our nature in order that by becoming man he might make men gods. Moreover, when he took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us for ever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine.

O precious and wonderful banquet, that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this? No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, so that what was instituted for the salvation of all may be for the benefit of all. Yet, in the end, no one can fully express the sweetness of this sacrament, in which spiritual delight is tasted at its very source, and in which we renew the memory of that surpassing love for us which Christ revealed in his passion.

It was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that our Lord instituted this sacrament at the Last Supper. As he was on the point of leaving the world to go to the Father, after celebrating the Passover with his disciples, he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion. It was the fulfillment of ancient figures and the greatest of all his miracles, while for those who were to experience the sorrow of his departure, it was destined to be a unique and abiding consolation.

The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary are this Friday and Saturday, June 12 & 13.

“Behold this Heart which has so loved men that It spared nothing, even going so far as to exhaust and consume Itself, to prove to them Its love. And in return I receive from the greater part of men nothing but ingratitude, by the contempt, irreverence, sacrileges and coldness with which they treat Me in this Sacrament of Love. But what is still more painful to Me is that even souls consecrated to Me are acting in this way.”

—words of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

We've heard that individuals have been distributing flyers entitled "the truth about birth control pills" at some parishes. The flyers claim to be "approved by the Archdiocese of S.F.," but this is not true. Our Respect Life Program and Office of Marriage & Family Life can provide you with accurate resources on this and other pro-life and pro-family topics.
